Claim 484

NR 195.2 describes 3 lots: one on East of Luaehu [Lahaina, Maui]; one E of Kaleipaihala's; one makai of Kuakini's house "for the care of haoles."

NT 205.2 Z. Kaauwai witness, knows

[Pa 1.] this place of Kaiheekai, it is his; it was the place of his father, Hoolulu.

Pa 2. This was the pa of his kaikuaana [Hoapili]. There were no houses there, it was wasteland formerly and his kaikuaana built the enclosure and Kaiheekai occupies it.

Pa 3. From the fifth year of Kamehameha's living on Hawaii until he died I have known this place. It was the place where his several "grandmothers" [kupuna wahine] lived and when they died all of it became Hoolulu's--the father of Kaiheekai. Hanakaoo was an ancestral land of theirs (he kumu paa no lakou). The compound (kahuahale) was built by Kaiheekai, makai of the pa of Kuakini. A portion was cut off by the Government Road; when I saw it formerly it was a large enclosure; when I saw it again, it was very small.

Timoteo [Keaweii], witness...when his father died [in 1844] it [Lot 1] became Kaiheekai's, declared the chiefs who lived at Lahaina. That was the time it became theirs (ia laua). It was not a very good place formerly; when Kaiheekai occupied it it was enclosed, with stone houses within.

Pa 2: It is makai of Pikanele's place; Pahala is its name.

Pa 3: It is at Moanui; it is Kaiheekai's. It is an old pa, from the time of the Peleleu [fleet was at Maui in 1803].

LCA 484:

(RP 3583) Moanui, Pakala, Lahaina, 66 rods, 2 apana

(RP 8385) Waianae, Lahaina 1.00 ac 2 roods 31 rods, 1 apana

(Aw. Bk. 3:186; Indices 231)

Claim 361:

NR 108.2 Kaiheekai says he is haku of "this pahale" claimed by Kekela.

[Nothing further found on this Claim]

(Numerical Index, Claim 361, says "See Awards 484 and 11806")
